WHAT DOES MONROE BANK & TRUST (MBT) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Monroe Bank & Trust (MBT)

What do we do

How does Monroe Bank & Trust protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict employee access to customer information based on their job responsibilities. We also educate our employees about the importance of confidentiality and customer privacy and we require their commitment to this principle.

How does Monroe Bank & Trust collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- make a deposit or pay your bills
- use your debit card or other electronic banking products or services.

We also collect your personal information from others such as credit reporting agencies and other third parties.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
